

Kellie Copeland Swisher

Kellie Copeland Swisher (born February 14, 1965 -) is an author, speaker, and vocalist. The daughter of televangelists Kenneth and Gloria Copeland, she is the mother of four children: Rachel Ward Mayer, Lyndsey Ward, Jenny Kutz, and Max Kutz. She married Doyle Blaine Ward on 18 April 1982, with whom she had Rachel and Lyndsey. She was married to Alan "Win" Kutz 7 May 1985 and had Jenny and Max. Alan and Kellie Kutz were divorced on 16 February 2003. Kellie Dee Copeland married Dr. Stephen Lowell Swisher on July 18, 2008 at Eagle Mt. Intl. Church. Currently, she is the senior pastor over the children's ministry at Eagle Mountain International Church.

Copeland is the author of Protecting your Family In Dangerous Times, about keeping family members safe during uncertain times, and also directs the development of the Kenneth Copeland Ministries's children's products. She is perhaps best known as "Commander Kellie" in the video series Commander Kellie and the SuperKids.

Discography

- *Strand of Pearls (2007); features niece Aubrey Pearsons and daughters Jenny Kutz, Lyndsey and Rachel Ward
- *Judgment: The Trial of Commander Kellie (1999); soundtrack for the movie of the same name
- *Commander Kellie and the Superkids: Calypso Adventure (1992); children's story album
- *Commander Kellie and the Superkids: Adventure in Centra City (1990); children's story album
- *Commander Kellie and the Superkids: The First Adventure (1989); children's story album
- *Goodbye World (1986); recorded with Scott Johnson
- *Lullabies and Daysongs (1986); first children's album
- *Times of Refreshing (1983); first solo album (as Kellie Ward)
- *Kenneth Copeland and Friends...Live (1981); recorded in Charlotte, NC in 1980; sung two songs on the album

Videography

- *The Best of Superkids Music Videos (2001)
- *Judgment: The Trial of Commander Kellie (1999)
- *The Sword (1997)
- *Armor of Light (1995)
- *The Intruder (1992)

In addition, Kellie appeared on various episodes of the children's program The Gospel Bill Show, hosted by Oklahoma-based minister Willie George.

Bibliography

- Protecting your Family In Dangerous Times* (2002)